MILITARY DICTATOR FOR GERMANY THREAT

Demands of the Democrats Looked Upon With Disfavor By Kaiser

(By Associated Press.) COPENHAGEN, Nov. 8.—The threat that military dictatorship is inevitable unless insistence upon a radical vice-chancellor is dropped, and the government of Von Hertling as it now stands is accepted, is held over the progressive democratic elements of Germany. Some say the Von Hertling chancellorship is in immediate danger of shipwreck.

(By Associated Press.) COPENHAGEN, Nov. 8.—The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, organ of the annexationists and great business interests, says at a recent conference of Teuton representatives it was decided to abandon the non-annexationist peace program for a policy of uniting Poland with Austria-Hungary and Courland and Lithuania with Germany.

(By Associated Press.) The Italian armies are continuing their retreat westward over the Venetian plains from the Taffamento river and southward from the Dolomites and Carnic Alps region toward the plains. The retreat is declared by the Italian war office to be an orderly one, with the rear guards on both fronts holding back the enemy and with airplanes also playing an important part in harassing the invaders, destroying bridges that have been thrown over the Tagliamento and bombing troops trying to cross the stream.

PROBE OF COAL MEN STARTED BY GARFIELD

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—An immediate investigation of charges that coal operators and dealers are not carrying out the orders of the fuel administration fixing prices and governing distribution will be started by the department of justice. Seizure of coal from trains by Ohio mayors and city officials will be left, the fuel administration announced, to the Ohio state fuel administrator for action. In a statement issued earlier in the day, Fuel Administrator Garfield characterized this sort of confiscation as "wholesale robbery."

PERU-CHILE UNDERSTANDING.

(By Associated Press.) LIMA, Peru, Nov. 8.—The foreign minister at a secret session of the senate yesterday gave a lengthy explanation of the relations between Peru and Chile and received an unanimous vote of confidence.

The Peruvian and Chilean governments were reported in October to have arranged for the simultaneous re-establishment of legations at Lima and Santiago. Diplomatic relations between these two countries were severed in 1910, owing to the long standing dispute over the possession of the provinces of Tacna and Arica.

(By Associated Press.) The proclamation fixes Thursday, November 29, as Thanksgiving day.

In the past few days all those previously rejected were ordered to report for re-examination. Within twenty-four hours all those not utterly incapacitated will be en route for training centers. TEUTON PROPOGANDA AIDED ITALY'S DEFEAT

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 8.—Major Gen. Frederick B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, in his weekly talk with the Associated Press, said: "The Italian situation is serious, but a considerable part of the alarmist talk which has been circulated is untrue. The attack was no surprise to General Cadorna. 'It is not necessary to say much here as to the cause of the Italian failure, except to note that the Germans accomplished at least something through insidious propaganda among the Italian troops. 'Developments now depend largely on the time in which allied reinforcements reach the line in adequate numbers.'"

Referring to the German claims of an enormous bag of prisoners, General Maurice expressed the opinion that these were largely overdrawn.

"The success of the second Liberty Loan, like that of the first, is a distinct triumph of the people of the United States," said Secretary McAdoo, in announcing the loan results last night. "It not only demonstrated their ability, patriotism and resources, but augurs the certain success of any future loans that may be offered by the government." The secretary denied the reports that the third loan would be solicited in January, 1918. "In view of the large oversubscription to the second Liberty Loan," he said, "I am glad to state that this will not be necessary."

SINN FEIN MAN JAILED IN N. Y.

AUTHORITIES BELIEVE THEY HAVE EVIDENCE OF MEN HERE WHO HAVE AIDED REVOLT.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Channels through which Sinn Fein leaders in Ireland have been communicating with their agents in the United States have been disclosed, secret service authorities believe, through the arrest of Thomas Welsh, a British subject, who waived examination yesterday on a charge of violating the trading with the enemy act when arraigned before a United States commissioner. That Welsh is identified with Sinn Fein propaganda was learned from a letter which he attempted to destroy when arrested, according to an assistant United States district attorney. Welsh came to the United States aboard a steamship which arrived here Sunday, having shipped as a member of its crew.

According to Chief Flinn, the information resulting from Welsh's arrest will be of great value to authorities investigating Sinn Fein plots "on the other side" as well as those tracing the supposed connection of a number of American residents with these intrigues.

FIRST MOVE IS TO MAKE DEMAND FOR END OF WAR

Army Acts With Rebels and Coup is Accomplished Without Bloodshed

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Maximalists have obtained control of Petrograd and have issued a proclamation that the new government will propose an immediate peace. A semi-official Russian news agency dispatch announces that the Maximalists, assisted by the Petrograd garrison, accomplished the coup without bloodshed.

Premier Kersky Has Been Deposed. President Trotsky of the central executive committee of the Petrograd council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, issued a declaration today that the provisional government was no longer in existence and that some of the members of it had been arrested. The preliminary parliament has been dissolved. Delegates from three Cossack regiments declared they would not obey the provisional government and would not march against the soldiers' and workmen's delegates, but that they were prepared to maintain order.

Outlining three problems before the Russian democracy, Nikolai Lenin said the first was immediate conclusion of the war, for which the new government proposed an armistice of all belligerents; second, the handing over of the land to the peasants, and third, the settlement of the economic crisis. At a closed sitting of the council, representatives of the Democratic

NO PEACE TALK AT CONFERENCE

AMERICAN DELEGATES TO TALK WAR PLANS AND NOTHING ELSE, SAYS LANSING

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—An American mission landed in England yesterday on the eve of the opening of the first great war conference in which the United States will participate.

Col. Edward M. House, President Wilson's personal friend and adviser, is the officially designated representative of the United States. He is accompanied by a staff representing every war agency in the United States, including Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations, and General Bliss, chief of staff of the army.

The date and place of the conference has not been made public, though the understanding here is that the sessions are about to begin. Secretary Lansing emphasized the fact that this gathering is to be a war conference and nothing else, charged with mapping out a plan of campaign against Germany to "bring the conflict to a speedy and satisfactory end."

There have been many indications that the conference was called at the request of the United States. In selecting its representatives, the United States has provided in advance against becoming involved in any discussion of peace terms or political questions.

RUSS CIVIL WAR IS PROBABILITY

KERENSKY MAY ESTABLISH HIS GOVERNMENT IN MOSCOW; CLASH EXPECTED.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Persons who are informed of Russian affairs believe that Kerensky's followers will probably establish their government at Moscow, leaving Petrograd to the Maximalists and those troops who are adhering to them. An armed clash is counted among the first probabilities. It is said here a greater part of the army is expected to remain loyal to Kerensky. The government realizes this new revolt is infinitely more serious than the Korniloff rebellion.

The collapse of Kerensky's government is regarded as threatening Russia with civil war. The state department would not comment until officially advised of the situation. The Russian embassy is likewise silent. The entente embassies realize it means first of all the probable rearrangement of war plans. They are shocked, but not disheartened at what they consider the triumph of insidious German propaganda.
